2018 Christmas Party

Friday, December 14

Rick & Sue's Home

Our annual Christmas Party was attended by about 20 members with everyone bringing their favourite dishes for the pot-luck dinner, and their tackiest offerings for the gift-exchange game. Some of the gifts failed the "tacky-test", but all were great!

Many laughs and great visiting occurred before, during and after supper.

The tacky gift exchange is always a highlight of our Christmas get-togethers. Robert ended up being the proud owner of one (yes one!) very sexy, shiny lady's high-heel shoe! He is now on a quest to find his Cinderella.

The members of the WWC are some of the best people we know... we are grateful for your presence in our lives and your friendship!

Merry Christmas to you all!

Rick & Sue
